

David Johnson

Dave “learned” the game in high school in Vancouver B.C. and after graduating from UBC Law school in 1978, moved to Calgary for a career in the oil business. He retired in 2012 and is playing and travelling more, including 2 of 3 Nationals on average each year. Dave was a director of Unit 390 from 2003 to 2006, president the last 2 of those years. Dave is currently on the ACBL Board of Governors. He has been an ACBL member since 1999 and is currently a Gold Life Master.
