

Mary Jo Brown
Montana District Rep

Mary Jo has been active in Montana bridge since the early 70s holding several offices in Unit 411. After starting the annual Last Chance Sectional in 1975, she chaired it for 25 years, and co-chaired the 2002 Queen City Regional. Mary Jo is a founder of the Jolley Follies, a successful annual play-off among Helena, Butte, and Great Falls geared to introducing new players to tournament play. She teaches beginning and intermediate lessons often partnering with her students at the clubs in Helena. After retiring from teaching elementary and middle school for 35 years, she has traveled extensively to bridge tournaments in Western states and provinces becoming a Gold Life Master.